Shop staff know no bounds when it comes to getting stock

Booker's Watford branch, the supplier of a wide range of the shop's stock, have decided to slim down the number of lines they offer and concentrate on supplying the catering rather than retail trade. They will still deliver to our shop but will have to charge their normal delivery fee.

Their Luton branch, however, has a wider range of stock that meets the requirements of our customers but unfortunately, they don't deliver. So not wanting to have empty shelves, because that's not a good look, what did the shop do? They went and collected the stock from Luton themselves of course!

This has proved to be a great success, so we will now be making regular trips to Luton to keep our shelves well stocked and customers happy because it's always been our goal to keep

Our shelves are back to their former glory.

Special Easter cakes are always popular.

serving you with a full range of competitively priced products whatever it takes!

The filtered coffee and cakes served by our superb volunteers in the café within the shop attracts cyclists from far and wide.
